A Presentation titled:

WUZ DE SCENE? CONSIDERING AESTHETICS IN THE CONTEMPORARY CARIBBEAN IMAGINATION

Sonja Dumas

By Sonja Dumas
Arts Practitioner, Educator and Theorist Specializing in Caribbean Culture

DATE: MONDAY, 21 MARCH, 2022. TIME: 18:00HRS – 19:30HRS

Looking at a series of Caribbean examples, this lecture will touch on the aesthetics of the region in natural, built, sonic, and movement environments, through the lens of culture. The objective is to illustrate choices that could be made/have been made when constructing the "look and feel" of a stage or screen production.

People who might be interested:

Students and researchers of Caribbean performing and visual arts, film, and set design.
